

Voluntary Flexible Agreement
Submissions
Posted August 10, 2011

On May 31, 2011, the Department of Education published a Federal Register notice inviting guaranty agencies that participate in the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program to submit proposals to enter into Voluntary Flexible Agreements (VFAs) with the Secretary, as authorized by section 428A of the Higher Education Act (HEA). By publishing the Federal Register notice the Department hoped to receive VFA proposals from guaranty agencies that, if finalized, will enhance the integrity and stability of the FFEL Program, improve services to students, schools and lenders, and use Federal resources more cost-effectively and efficiently.

Twenty-two separate VFA proposals were received by the August 1, 2011 submission deadline date. Twenty-four individual guaranty agencies, as listed below, were included in one or more of the proposals submitted. Some proposals were, as encouraged in the Federal Register notice, from teams of guaranty agencies. In some instances, also as provided for in the Federal Register notice, a guaranty agency submitted more than one proposal, either on its own or as part of a team proposal.

The 22 submitted proposals will, after a preliminary review by the Department and as provided in the Federal Register notice, be posted on the Department's Financial Partners Portal at <http://www.fp.ed.gov/VFA.html>.
